“ May I send my fellow feeling to you all, the Jones and friends. Losing a dear loved one breaks the circle of life for all. Time will help to ease the pain some what however knowing that our heavenly father cares for you all is the greatest, 1 Peter 5:7. In the near future we will enjoy happiness with our loves as the bible say at John 5:28. I am so looking forward to that and I know you all are too. May all the precious times shared with Ms. Mary keep supporting and sustaining you all.##imported-begin##lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family for the loss of Mary. Losing a loved one in death is so hard to come to grips with, because we miss our loved ones so very much. This pain was not God's purpose for us, and through his son Jesus, he has taken steps to end all sickness and death; and resurrect our loved ones back to life in peaceful and secure conditions. The bible promises that there will be many of those in the ground of dust who will wake up. Daniel 12:2. Also John 5:25-29 tells us that God has given his son all authority to resurrect the dead. May those promises from the scriptures bring you much peace and joy, and may you cherish memories of Mary help you to cope until that glorious day of salvation comes to pass.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
