

Mary Louise Pulley

February 29, 1928 - July 13, 2009

Mary Louise Pulley, daughter of the late James Rich and Lillian Pressley, was born on February 29, 1928 in Northumberland, Virginia. She departed this life suddenly on Monday, July 13, 2009. She was a devoted wife, mother, sister, grandmother, great grandmother and friend. She received her early childhood education in Heathsville, Virginia and continued her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. She worked for a catering business, she was a domestic worker. Eight months ago she retired as a devoted caregiver for the Charles L. Stevens family. She married William E. Pulley (who preceded her in death) on July 1, 1974. Louise (as she was fondly called) enjoyed cooking, baking and making jell-o for her son Phil and the transition was carried over to her two grandchildren, Stephanie and Steven. Louise was a person that loved to travel and enjoyed the family gatherings. She leaves to mourn; one devoted son James Phillip Savory, two brothers, Augustus Carter and James Rich; three sisters; Angus, Julia, Ethel (who preceded her in death) two grandchildren Stephanie and Steven Savoy; two great grandchildren, Willie Brown and Jonithan Jones and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.
