“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Revelation 21:3-5 tells of the time where there will be no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. Also, Acts 24:15 lovingly declares: "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful hope found in the Holy Bible.###imported-begin###Mrs. Hill###imported-end###

“ I send my deepest sympathy for your loss. Keep your hope in the ressurection, because by means of it, many will come back to life. While Jesus was here on earth he raised many back to life including his friend Lazarus, and a 12-year old little girl. Mark 5:38-43. The bible promises that one day, all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus"s voice and come out of those tombs to life everlasting. May the sure promise of the ressurection help you to cope in the days ahead, and bring much comfort to your hearts.###imported-begin###Rita Johnson###imported-end###
