

Mary Marshall

November 3, 1921 - September 22, 2017

Mary Goodwyn Marshall, daughter of the late Andrew Thomas and Lillie Durphy Goodwyn was born on November 3, 1921 in Warwick County, Virginia. She went home to glory on September 22, 2017.

Mary, GranMary. Nana, as she was affectionately called, loved life to the full. She had a wonderful sense of humor, wisdom and wit, with no hesitation to speak her mind. She loved the Lord and enjoyed helping others in whatever capacity she could. She gave her life to Christ at an early age and served many years on a variety of ministries at Cenntennial United Methodist Church and John Wesley United Methodist church, the last of her tenure until her health prevented her from doing so.

Nana enjoyed writing short stories, poems, and plays. In fact several of her plays were enacted at both churches. She also enjoyed reading, which she would read to "those old people" at the facility in which she last lived. She enjoyed traveling with Alvin "Butch", her husband of 54 years, who predeceased her. Mary also had 2 sons John "Butchie" Latimer and Sherman "Pinky" Latimer from an earlier marriage, both of whom have predeceased her.

As mentioned Mary enjoyed helping people so her jobs were all service related, from sales associate to customer service representative. She even served meals on wheels for 15 years until she was 88 years old.

Mary's loved ones who will keep her memory alive include her step daughter Cynthia Harrison, step-son Alvin "Butch" Marshall, Jr., nieces Teriko Epps and Cheryl Goodwyn, 8 grand children including Yvette Gayles and Jacqueline Boone who assisted in her care, 6 great grandchildren, great nieces and nephews, great great nieces and nephews and numerous caring cousins and friends.
