“ I wanted to take this opportunity to talk about Mary, and how she touched my life as her co- worker at Sheppard and Enoch Pratt Hospital. Mary was a inspiration and a moral leader with her colleagues. Mary had a quiet gentleness about her. If you did wrong you better watch out, because Mary would set you straight. Mary was a hard worker who took on many other duties than assigned by her supervisors. And that laugh-that wonderful laugh of hers. It was so diarming. Mary was always there to give a hug or a consoling ear. Mary was there for me when my mom died, but more importantly- afterward. I will miss her much and so will all her colleagues here at Sheppard Pratt. In times of relaxation Mary would bring on her home cooking and family style attitude, which was the essence of Mary. All came, All enjoyed. Mary is loved and missed, but God loved her Best. thank you- may Mary essence and God reverence continue to shine upon her family and us all.##imported-begin##Mr. & Mrs. Andre Hudson##imported-end##
