

Mary Frances Miller

July 3, 1928 - January 9, 2017

Mary Frances Miller, daughter of the late Edith and Edward Harrison was born July 3, 1928 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on January 9, 2017 after a lengthy illness. Mary was affectionately known as Biggie.

Mary learned and accepted the truth from Elaine Simmons. They remained friends to this day. She was baptized on February 8, 1958. She married the love of her life, the late Jack Miller on December 31, 1952.

Mary had a deep love and devotion for the Field Ministry. Mary pioneered numerous times throughout her life.

Mary enjoyed spending time with friends and family. She found joy and great pleasure in cooking and endless conversation. Her home was filled with wonderful smells of cooking in the kitchen, so much that the kids referred to her home as Our Daily Bread.

She took great care especially in spending time with her grandchildren, particularly Carmalita Alexis Moore and Christopher Devon Phipps who followed her everywhere.

She had great pride in her grandson Damon Gerrard Fowler, who showed great interest in serving in the Bethel Services.

In addition to Mary's parents, Mary is preceded in death by her husband Jack, Miller, her brother Edward Harrison, Jr., and her sisters Gladys Epperson, Moncina Harrison and Alice Harrison.

Mary leaves to mourn her son Ronald Hutchinson and daughter-in-law Marla Hutcherson; daughter Rita Fowler and son-in-law James Edward Fowler, daughters Edy Cassandra Moore, Deborah Rene Jennings and son-in-law Frank Jennings, Stephanie Miller, Donna M. Phipps and son-in-law Curtis Eugene Phipps, Theodore McCoy (Eranda Miller), Eugene Miller, Jack Miller, Jr. and Hattie. Mary had 23 grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren.

The family would like to express their sincere love to their sister Donna and brother-in-law Curtis Phipps who took special care of their mother for years until her death.

“ Even tho, I did not see her toward the end, I miss just knowing that she is gone from the earth to await the resurrection. I love her too, and will always cherish the many words of wisdom she gave me. I can't wait to tell her that it was always true, and turned out just the way she said it would. Too this day and for ever she will always be my "mama Miller"
With you in sadness and tears. Take care keep the hope. She will be there at the dawn of a better brighter day.-BRoyal
