

Mary Jean Monteagudo

June 5, 1936 - February 5, 2019

Mary Jean Monteagudo, 83, passed away on February 5th, 2019 at her home in Baltimore, Maryland after bravely fighting Alzheimer's Disease for 18 years. Miss Monteagudo was born as Mary Jean Anthony on June 5th, 1936 in Washington D.C. to the late Annie Mae and William Wilson. She graduated from high school in D.C. While she lived in D.C., she had two children, Darrell and Darlene Monteagudo. Miss Monteagudo moved to Baltimore City in 1963, where she worked for Baltimore City Public Schools for 25 years in varying capacities. Miss Jean loved to cook, particularly Southern-style dishes and desserts. She also enjoyed listening to music and traveling with loved ones. A compassionate mother, grandmother, and pillar of the community, everyone in Miss Jean's life became better because of her presence. She leaves to cherish her loving memory: her children, Darrell and Darlene Monteagudo; and grandson, Alexander Monteagudo. She is survived by her brother, Kenneth Wilson; her great-niece, Shante Johnson; and a host of other nieces and nephews. She also leaves behind three special friends, Mrs. Claudette, Barbara Ann Jenkins; and Della Wright.
