

Mary E. Peeples

April 14, 1936 - September 1, 2010

Mary Ellen Peeples, daughter of the late Alexander and Julia Crocker, was born on April 14, 1936 in Richmond, Virginia. She departed her life on September 2, 2010 after a lengthy illness.

She received her education at Paul Laurence Dunbar Elementary School and Carver Vocational High School where she received a certificate in cooking. She then was employed at Sinai Hospital in Dietary. She was also employed at the Belvedere Hotel Second Cook, making cakes and pastry. For several years she became a aide to the disabled adults and children. She worshipped at Doswell Catheral where she became a motron taking care of the children for several years. She also sung on the Women's Choir and much more. She later attended Greater Bethesda Baptist Church for several years where she was a teacher's helper for Bible Vacation School. She was an active present member at the New Shiloh Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Carter, Sr.and Pastor Carter, Jr.

She was married to the late Rayford Peeples, out of this union three daughters were born, Julia Lucille Peeples, Patrica Evette Peeples and Drucilla Peeples.

Mary loved to talk to people. She had a kind heart. Always ready to help out in time of need. They knew her by her hats and the way she dressed. Her smile and her tenderness will never be forgotten. The names people knew her by were Mom, Nana and Aunt May.

She leaves to mourn: her daughter, Julia Lucille Peeples; soon-to-be-son-in-law, Terry Richard White; seven grandchildren, Mark Darnell Peeples, Patrice Lucille Peeples, Cornell Rayford Peeples, Tiana Shante Tobin, Rayford Richard White, Chad Tyell White and Jerome Linwood Lee; sister, Henrietta Barbara Ann Johnson; brother, McCoy Crocker; sister-in-law, Thelma Crocher; two great-grandchildren, Brian Hodge and Kenaz Gabriel Peeples; and a host of nieces and nephew, other relatives and friends.
