“ Classy was she! This was the 2nd reason I truly admired her. The 1st reason was her personal relationship with the Lord. Every time I hear the song "Precious Lord", I have always been and will always be reminded of you because that was one of your favorite songs. Thanks for the childhood memories Big Cuz! Forever in my heart. Also, thank you family for sharing this beautiful homegoing service.

“ Aunt Mary, I am so proud to be your niece and so humbled that you trusted me to be your Pastor. I love you auntie and will miss you and our talks. I was so carried back to the flood of life memories of fun, excitement and laughter. You were my diva aunt that showed me so much of life. My 1st ever concert was with you (The Jackson Five- in my red crushed velvet dress and shoes). You couldn't tell me nothing..lol

Coming to your home in the summers was like going on a exotic vacation. Going with you and Uncle Trent to Westmoreland Beach was always the best.. You always made life an adventure. I will never forget it.

As your Pastor and being able to spiritually walk you through life's up downs was an amazing journey. I appreciate all the encouragement and support you've shown as I've pastored you for nearly 20 years. Now helping to usher you across the threshold to your brand new life, I am honored.

When we return to church not seeing you in your favorite seat will be difficult. Not hearing you just break out with one of those Mother Pete questions that I had to think twice before I answered..lol or a favorite song will be noticeably missed, but just save me a seat near you in Heaven and we'll catch up then.

💕 Love you always, Boo Boo, Trina, Pastor

P.S. and your Cal-B sure does miss his Sweet Mary..xoxo till we meet again!

“ A life well lived. A job well done. Mary was a blessing; a strong woman of faith. She did not just "talk the talk." She "walked the walk" with her hand in God's hand. Family, hold on to God's hand and he will provide comfort and strength in the day's to come.
