

Mary L. Ruffin

February 24, 1923 - March 27, 2013

MARY L. KING RUFFIN, daughter of the late Herbert King and Mary Batten King, was born on February 24, 1923 in Isle White County, Virginia. She departed this life on March 27, 2013.

At an early age Mary came to Baltimore, Maryland and was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System.

“Mert,” as she was affectionately known, loved sewing. She worked several places as a seamstress, often sewing at home for friends and family members.

Mert was married to the late Robert Ruffin.

Mert made numerous friends and would often talk on the telephone for hours with them.

She leaves to mourn: a sister, Artis Duncan; a devoted friend, Linwood Herring “Raymond;” and a host of cousins and friends.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I am sure you have many fine memories of your loved one that will bring you a measure of comfort during these trying times. Our loving heavenly Father is the "God of all comfort" and he can and will help you through this difficult time because "he cares for you." (1 Peter 5:7)

“ To the Family and Friends , I would like to express my deepest sympathy on the loss of your loved one. At a time like this, the pain and sorrow that is felt cannot be explained. The hurt feels like it will never go away. We have all lost a loved one and a few comforting words mean a lot to us. I hope you can find comfort from these words found in God's word the Bible. At Rev.21:3,4, Jehovah assures us this: "God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death ill be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. What a wonderful hope we have and all we have to do is to follow what John 17:3 says. "This means everlasting life, their taking in knowledge of you, the only true God, and of the one whom you sent forth, Jesus Christ". One day in the near future, we will see our loved ones again.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
