

Mary S. Jones

December 29, 1954 - December 6, 2002

Mary S. Jones, daughter of the late Rev. Carpenter Booker and Rev. Jeannette S. Jones, departed this life on Friday, December 6, 2002 at the age of forty-seven. She was born and educated in the public schools of Baltimore City, Maryland. She was employed as a nurse for the majority of her life, in which she performed, in home care. Mary was also attending Coppin State College where she was pursuing a degree in Nursing in order to become a registered nurse. She was a strong and dedicated Christian at the Central Church of Christ and later attended the Church of the Redeemed of the Lord in Baltimore, Maryland. She always worried about her family and taught her children to give up anything that was bringing them down. Also, she taught them to take responsibility as a serious matter. Mary was an extremely nice person and would do anything she could to help another person. Mary was always a true friend and devoted family woman who will be loved and missed by her family and friends. Never a day would go by that she would not give a loving hand to someone. Her spirit will live on forever. Mary leaves to cherish her memory; her son, Donte' Jones; her daughter, Monique Wilkerson; her sisters, Martha S. Jones, Evelyn P Carpenter and Rozena Stell; her brother, Isaac B. White; daughter-in-law, Kameko Jones, Her grandsons, Giles W. Jones and Davonte' S. Wilkerson; her granddaughter, Chanel M. Jones; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
