

Mary E. Smith

February 28, 1947 - November 1, 2018

OBITUARY

MARY ELIZABETH HESTER SMITH, daughter of Mable and Edgar Hester, was born February 28th, 1947 in Keysville, Virginia. She departed this earthly life on October 29, 2018 after a lengthy illness.

Mary received her education in the public school system of Farmville, Virginia, graduating from Robert Russa Moton High School. After relocating to Baltimore, Mary was gainfully employed with London Fog where she worked for twenty-seven years.

Mary dedicated her life to the Lord at a young age and was baptized at Israel Baptist Church where most of her family attended. She later rededicated her life to the Lord at Shiloh Ministries of Baltimore.

One of Mary's favorite past-times was watching "The Young And The Restless" and "The Bold & The Beautiful." She also enjoyed cooking phone conversations with family and friends. Everyone knew Mary as a kind and giving person who was a caretaker and Mother to anyone who needed her help. Her first impression was always genuine, warm, and loving.

Mary fought a valiant battle with Kidney disease, spending twelve years of her life going for treatment at the Fresenius Kidney Care Dialysis Center. Although sickness came upon her in her early adult years, anyone who knew her knew she always kept her hair and nails done. In spite of illness Mary lives life to the fullest and wanted those around her to do the same.

Mary was preceded in death by her two sons, Arthur Lee Smith Jr. and Calvin Smith.

Mary leaves a legacy of love with: her husband, Arthur Lee Smith Sr.; two daughters, Sandra Smith and Deborah Smith McInnis; ten grandchildren; sixteen great-grandchildren; five great-great-grandchildren; eight sisters, Evelyn, Perlizer, Annie, Rebecca, Margaret, Julia, Lizzie and Claudette; three brothers, Eugene, Marcellus and Arthur; and a host of other relatives and friends.
