

Mary Louise Smith

November 28, 1946 - September 3, 2014

MARY LOUISE SMITH, daughter of the late Ellise Buckner and raised by the late Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Murdock, was born on November 28, 1946 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on September 3, 2014 after a battle with cancer.

Educated through the public school system of Anne Arundel County, she attended Bates High School in Annapolis, MD. Louise worked as a special aide school bus driver for disabled youth in Anne Arundel County. She also drove an MTA bus and worked for Thrifty Car rental at the airport until she retired.

She married the late Anthony Smith and out of this union six children were born. She loved hiking through the woods, fishing and hunting for turtles. She also enjoyed being with her grandchildren, family and hanging out with friends. Louise always had a smile on her face.

She leaves to mourn: 4 daughter, Rochelle, Roxanne, Edna and Shirley; 2 sons, Anthony, Jr. and Samuel Webster Smith; 14 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren; son-in-law, Alan Brown; childhood friend, Rachel Jones and special friends, Ann White and Lilly Alston from NC and a special place in her heart for niece Dawn. Also a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
