

Mary Jane Stewart

January 26, 1938 - December 29, 2011

MARY JANE STEWART (Nana), daughter of the late Edward J. and Mary J. Smith was born on January 26, 1938 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on Thursday, December 29, 2011 at 2:45 p.m. after a lengthy illness.

She received her education through the Baltimore City Public School System. She later met and married James W. Stewart (predeceased her in death on August 12, 2000) and out of their union they were blessed with five children: Beverly, James Jr. (predeceased in death), Debra, Janice and Joseph.

Her love for the Lord led her to First Christ United Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Harry Greene. She served on the Usher Board and Kitchen Committee.

Nana's full-time job was taking care of everyone's children. She had a passion for all children, treated each and everyone the same and turned no one away. She loved and cared for numerous children- most of them from birth. She watched them grow up, go to college, get married, and even have kids of their own.

Anyone could call Nana day or night for her to baby sit and her response would be "just bring to me."

Nana enjoyed her soap operas- especially The Young and the Restless and The Bold and Beautiful. Her other favorite shows were: The Price is Right, Family Feud, Criminal Minds and the Good Wife. She loved to play Pitty Pat, Solitaire, Pokeno, handheld slot machines, going to Atlantic City, trips to the dollar store, drinking Coca Cola Classic and eating out with her church buddies. Nana's favorite song was Shackles by Mary Mary.

Her brothers and sisters who preceded her in death are: Evelyn Mae Smith, George Smith, Ernest Johnson, Edward Johnson, Calvin Smith, Eleanor Kearney and Dorothy Lockers.

She leaves to cherish her memory: three daughters, Beverly A. Burston, Debra S. Glay and Janice M. Cuttino; one son, Joseph E. Stewart; two sons-in-law, Ronnie K. Glay and Ray A. Cuttino; three sisters, Catherine Bates, Leanna Johnson and Betty Jamison; two brothers, Robert and William Smith; four sister-in-law, Magaly Smith, Celestine Smith, Carolyn Smith and Helen Stewart; five grandchildren, Colby L. Burston (Vonnie Burston), Sheronne N. Fields (Christopher Fields), Justine R. Cuttino (Belinda Cooper), Kayla R. Cuttino and Ariel M. Glay; seven great-grandchildren, Cameron, Carmen, Alayah, Casey, Colbi, Ashton and Sidney; special friends, Ms Oslo Johnson, Ms. Pearl Arrington and Ms. Vera Gaskins; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ O gracious and Almighty GOD, You knoweth from whence we have come and where we are going, even though we do not know these things about ourselves. We come this moment of difficulty to submit our way to your divine will. Lord, you have said in Your words: If we ask, it shall be given; if we seek, we shall find; if we knock, doors shall be opened to us. We come You asking that You give us the strength to release our love back to You in the spirit of gratitude knowing that there is no more suffering, no more heartaches, no more disappointments. Help us to rejoice that there is rest from all labor, that there is peace that passes all understanding and that there is unspeakable joy when union is formed with the caravan of innumerable ancestors that have gone on before and is able, with the host of heaven, to welcome one more member.

Lord, we seek greater faith. Remove all doubt. Help our unbelief. And now as our beloved stand knocking at the doors of eternal life, may we be reminded of our own immortality that we may immediately rise from our slumber of pity and be about the unfinished business that is before us. Teach us to forgive, forget, and to love, so that the remainder of our journey may be pleasing in Your sight. As we commend this spirit into Your hands, give us life anew that we, like our Savior, will be able, in all things, to pray not our will but Thine. In Thy Holy name, we pray.

Revelation 2:10

Be thou faithful unto death and I will give a crown of life.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
