

Mary V. Taylor

December 28, 1930 - March 17, 2018

Mother Mary Virginia Taylor was the eldest child and only daughter born to the late Richard Frank Williams and Edna Williams in Eastern Shore, Maryland. The name Mary means beloved. Our beloved was truly loved, adored, funny and respected. Mary was small in Stature but large in heart, character, and strength.

In 1992, Mary joined the Har Sinai Church of Christ under the pastorship of the late Bishop Jeff Johnson (founder). Soon after, she was baptized and a member of the True Blue Club where participated in activities such as fundraisers and bus trip to raise funds for the Church.

Mother Mary was one the oldest residences of Perkins Homes where she resided for nearly 50 years. she was a member of the original Golden Girls: Bert and Phyllis (deceased). the Golden girls were very resourceful woman who looked after each other and enjoyed community fellowship. They were often seen in the neighborhood barbecuing, playing cards and discussing the community news. (gossip)

Mother Mary lived her life to the fullest. She always desired to spend time with family and friends. Mother Mary was an excellent cook and shared her recipes with loves ones. she also enjoyed camping, gardening, playing cards (spades & Tonk), word puzzles and artfully completing the challenging jigsaw puzzles.

Shortly after celebrating 88 years of living. she became ill. Drawing from her inner and spiritual strength, she fought the good fight until her Lord and Savior came and received her to himself on March 17, 2018: departing the land of the living and resurrected into eternal life with Jesus Christ.

She was preceded in death by sons Frank N. Williams, Theodore Taylor and Edward Williams (adopted Niece; sons: Raymond Williams, Leroy Hill, Timothy Taylor, and Carrol Williams; and a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and other relatives and friends.
