

Mary D. Teel

August 28, 1921 - August 31, 2013

MARY DOREATHEA TEEL was born in Virginia on August 28, 1921 to the late Pearl and Sam Evans.

Doreathea was raised in Turner Station where she attended school. During her early years of education she had to stop school and help support her family. She worked in her mother's beauty salon and helped raise her brothers and sisters.

At an early age she married Charles Roberts; and from that union two children were born, Rochelle and Wentley. In later years she married Warrace Teel, Sr. and went on to start her own business, called Doreathea's Petite Beauty Salon.

Doreathea was an outgoing, fun loving and caring wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, and aunt.

She leaves to mourn: her loving husband, Warrace Teel Sr.; daughter, Rochelle (son, Wentley, preceded her in death); devoted step-son, Warrace Teel Jr., and his wife, Marge; eight grandchildren, several great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and many other relatives and friends.
