Because her work was done At the culmination of our earthly work, the Master's plan is that we will return home. So too was the plan for MARY VIVIAN EATON, daughter of the late Emmitt Perry, Sr., and Mable Debnam Perry. Mary was born on August 4, 1927 in Louisburg, NC. Her journey was completed on Friday, May 20, 2005. Mary's life between these dates has made such a profound difference in all our lives. Mary's formal education began in the public school system in Littleton, NC. She attended the McIver High School. Upon arriving in Baltimore, Mary joined the Zion Baptist Church and remained a faithful member until death. Mary worked various jobs. On April 27, 1990, Mary retired from the Westinghouse Corporation after twenty-three years of service. Mary's exuberance will live on in the hearts and minds of: her husband, Cleophas Eaton; two children, her son, Calvin (Pearl - wife) Eaton, McLeansville, NC and Deborah Love of the home. “ I send my condolences to the family and friends who are grieving over the loss of Ms. Mary. As she was a reader of God's word, she would want us to take comfort from it. John 5:28,29 helps us to appreciate there will be a resurrection of the dead to life on this earth. Also, Revelations 21:4 describe a time when conditions will be much better than today. May you be comforted.##imported-begin##Kendra A.##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Isaiah 25:8,9 where God says that he will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces. It is my hope that you will be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My family and I are very sorry to hear about your loss. During this difficult time, the Bible can be very encouraging. I would like to share a scripture with you that comforts me during my difficult time. John 11:25 "...Jesus said to her, 'I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercise faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life...." I hope you too can draw comfort from these words.##imported-begin##Ms. McNeil##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. I personally find much comfort and solace from the Bible. The Bible informs us that death is really our enemy and it will be done away with. "The last enemy to be destroyed will be death."-(1 Corinthians 15:26) What about our loved ones that we have already loss in death? Job 14:15 offers the hope of a resurrection. Notice how it says that Almighty God "will call" the dead and they "shall answer", they will come back to life. Psalm 37:29 assures us that there will be a trouble free paradise earth that will be here when many of the dead arise. May these divinely inspired promises give you comfort, peace and strength in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Mrs. Eaton seemed to be a remarkable person. I am sure that she was greatly loved by her family and those who knew her. Certainly she must be sorely missed. Death is the enemy that we never get used to. But the Bible gives us hope for a resurrection at John 5:28-29 where Jesus promises that, "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". This scripture has brought comfort to many. I hope that this will comfort you as well##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
