May 3, 1940 - March 14, 2002

Mary Boston, daughter of the late John and Rose Boston, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on May 3, 1940. Mary married Joseph Knox. Mary suddenly departed this life on March 14, 2002. She gently closed her eyes and went home to be with God. Mary Boston attended the Baltimore City Public Schools. She gave her life to Christ a long time ago. Mary was a warm, friendly and loveable person, who loved music, and when she would see one of us she would run over and give us a kiss and a hug. She always had a warm smile and said, " I love you" with tears of joy. She leaves behind: her husband, Joseph Knox; two sons, Edward Knox and Joseph Carpenter; three grandchildren, Robert Lee, Nicole Lee and Gloria Knox; five sisters, Louise Dudley, Yvonne Brooks, Dorothy Boston, Mildred Matthews and Irene Boston; three brothers, John Boston, Johnny Boston and Edward Boston; four brothers-in-law, Harry Knox, James Gardner, George Barber, Raymond Curry and Bernard Jones; two sisters-in-law, Gloria Barber and Arnetta Curry; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
