

Mary V. Robins

March 31, 1925 - January 11, 2004

Mary V. Milligan Robins was the daughter of the late Henry Milligan and Mary Harris. God doeth all things, and called her home on Sunday, January 11, 2004. At an early age of 13, Mary moved from Reisterstown, Maryland to Baltimore, where she joined her father and stepmother and five brothers, of whom she was the oldest. At the tender age of 19 Mary married Charlie Robins; from this union they had three daughters, Berdella Richardson, Lorraine Tillett and Gwendolyn Edmonds. MaMa, as many called her, received her education in Baltimore City schools. She gained full time employment at Johns Hopkins University, until she became disabled. MaMa was loved by everyone who knew her. She was always smiling, loved to be in her kitchen, and taking care of her plants. Her memory will live on in the hearts and minds of those who knew her. Her last words were, "Lord I am so tired," May God bless and keep her. In God's own time, He saw you were getting weary. He said come and rest. He said "I've come to take you to My home on high, where the pleasure will never die." MaMa leaves to cherish her loving memory: three daughters, Berdella Richardson, Lorraine Tillett and Gwendolyn Edmonds; three grandsons, Gregory Richardson (wife, Tasha), Mark Robins (wife, Coretta) and Derek Rodgers; two great-granddaughters, Marquette Robins and Staci Richardson; two brothers, Carroll and John Milligan; mother-in-law, Della Moore; eight sisters-in-law, Ruby, Ruth, Jule and Evelyn Milligan, Hattie Keene, Mildred Clark, Louise Allgood and Shirley Brown; one brother-in-law, Raymond Moore; one son-in-law, Irvin Tillett; a host of other relatives and friends. Family members who preceded her in death are: her mother, Mary Harris; father, Henry Mulligan; husband, Charlie Robins; grandson, James Richardson Jr.; three brothers, George, James and Benjamin Milligan; two sons-in-law, James Richardson Sr. and Darrell Edmonds.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
