

Mary Rose Washington

May 26, 1923 - November 21, 2010

MRS. MARY ROSE WASHINGTON, age eighty-seven, daughter of the late Henry Hemphill and Anna Hemphill, was born on May 26, 1923 in Rockhill, South Carolina. She departed this life on Sunday, November 21, 2010.

Mary Rose worked as a domestic employee for Patricia Calhoun for many years, where she was very much loved and appreciated.

Mary Rose joined the Ship of Zion Church in the seventies, where she became a missionary. He was a faithful member until her health started to fail. She loved talking about the Lord, it brought such joy to her.

Mary Rose was such a beautiful person. She was always joyful and smiled all the time.

She was preceded in death by her husband James Washington and two brothers and one sister.

Those who will always cherish her memory are: her sister, Jean Norris of Baltimore, Maryland and brother-in-law, William Norris; brothers Robert Jones of Salisbury, North Carolina and Gary Jones of Baltimore, Maryland; aunt Isabell Watson of Salisbury, North Carolina; uncle, Leroy Gatton of New York City, New York; and a host of niece, nephews, cousins and friends.
