

Mary Johnson Wingfield

May 7, 1932 - July 25, 2014

Mary Washington Johnson Wingfield was born May 7, 1932 to Eddie and Cora Johnson, one of eighteen and she was a twin. She lived in Varina on Route 5, where everyone pitched in on the family farm, raising an abundance of crop, much of what would be taken to town on the weekends for sale.

Mary attended classes at the old St. James Schoolhouse in Varina before going to Virginia Randolph High in Glen Allen. She got married to Earl Wingfield, and after giving birth to her child, she returned to graduate from high school.

For over thirty years until her retirement, Mary worked at People's Drug Store (CVS), in Richmond, VA. When she wasn't working, she loved to surround herself with family and friends. In addition to raising her four children who preceded in death, Earl Willie Wingfield Muhammad, Barbara Jean Wingfield Bailey, Wendy Wingfield Pride, and Lennette Denise Wingfield, Mary raised her four grandchildren as well. She enjoyed her flowers, displaying family pictures, decorating her home, and playing card games and dominoes.

Among those who will miss her are her grandchildren, Telly Bailey, Jabreel Bailey, Akhee Bailey, and Bayyinah Bailey; Rosella Sprow and Abdul Hafiz Muhammad; her beloved twin sister, Lillian Myrick, and sisters, Geraldine Spurlock and Lucy Aho; brother, Percy Johnson, thirteen great-grandchildren, daughter-in-law, Lateefah Muhammad, son-in-law, Bruce Bailey, and a host of nieces and nephews.
