“ I am so saddened and sorry to learn about Mary's passing. She was like a second mother to me and I was her Shadow. I followed her around my house when I was little. She was one of the kindest woman I ever knew. She will be dearly missed by me and my family.

“ She was like a 'second' mother to me. I used to visit her during my trips to Baltimore. I couldn't get ahold of her and then saw this news. I will miss her dearly.

“ Sister Mary was a faithful member of the Sinclair Lane Church of God for many years. She was the backbone of the church . She attended services and Sunday school regularly and would often time teach the class. Mary was a person of prayer and loved the Lord with all her heart. She always helped with whatever was needed including even getting the mail at the post office. She is greatly missed and rightly mourned. She has now received her eternal reward.

With Love and Condolence Bishop Brian D Marshall Sr. and the congregation at Sinclair Lane.
