“ To The Family of Mary Ann Elizabeth Cotton: It is with sympathy that I write. Death is such an enemy of life, and in this world we all must face it one day. I have found a very comforting passage found in the Bible at Acts 24:15, and it states: "And I have hope toward God, which hope these men themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous". I find this passage encouraging, knowing that one day, I will see my loved ones again. I hope that this passage brings solace to the family. With sympathy.##imported-begin##Von Holley##imported-end##

“ May God be with you in your time of sorrow. May He keep you close to Him. Just remember that God said in His Word that He will neither leave you nor forsake you. Trust in Him always and He will guide you into all truth. For He has not left you comfortless, but sends you the Holy Spirit. God bless you.##imported-begin##Gwendolyn Myers##imported-end##

“ I want the family to know that death is not the end, but it is just the beginning. The Lord will provide for you in your time of sorrow. Trust in Him and He will comfort and strengthen you. It will be hard and it will take a while, but it will get better as long as you keep your hand in God's unchanging hands. Weeping may endure for the night, but joy does come in the morning. May the Lord shine down on you and your family.##imported-begin##Tameka Davis##imported-end##
