

Matthew James Hill

July 8, 1959 - June 19, 2019

Matthew (Worm) James Hill, son of Billie Watson and the late Irene Hill-Watson, was born on July 8, 1959 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life and began a new journey on June 19, 2019 at the age of 59.

Matthew received his education in Baltimore City school systems where he learned several trades such as carpentry, plumbing, electrical and auto mechanics. He worked for Pilot Construction Company for several years as a pipe layer, and later became the Foreman. Upon leaving Pilot Construction, he began his entrepreneurship, mostly helping Family and Friends with landscaping, plumbing and car repairs. Everyone who had the pleasure of working with Matthew loved him.

Worm, Wizzy or Cuddy as he was affectionately called, was always willing to lend a helping hand, especially to his neighbors and family or strangers, it didn't matter, if there was a need, he was there to assist.

Although Worm didn't attend church services on a regular basis, he knew Christ and accepted Him into his life at an early age. He would break out with a gospel song at any given moment. His favorite songs were "Trouble In My Way and Hold On".

Worm loved hunting and fishing. His favorite pastime was entertaining his friends and family. He definitely was the life of the party. Worm was a loving and caring person, especially with children. He never met any strangers, and he truly enjoyed being around people. With such a caring and loving personality, Worm made a significant impact on every person he met.

Matthew leaves to celebrate his life and cherish his memory; his wife Sharon Hill; five sons Donta, Tavon, Marlon, Jerome and Brandon; four daughters Crystal, LaQuawn, LaNae and Diamond; several grandchildren; father Billie (Bud) Watson. Six sisters Roslyne, Yolanda, Lorraine (Raymond), Sonia, Constantina (Errol) and Towanda (Derwin); four brothers Vernon, Dominic, Rondell and Jabreel; three aunts Vodie (Doolie), Maggie (Nat) and Merdis; two uncles Grady and Curtis; favorite Cuddy, Barbara/Pop; special neighbors Mrs. Virginia-Ma (mr. James) and Mrs. Jenny; and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.
