August 20, 1961 - March 28, 2005

Matthew J. Jones, beloved son of the late Maggie Jones and Matthew Jones, was born on August 20, 1961 in Baltimore, Maryland. On Easter Monday, March 28, 2005, God saw the road was getting rough; the hills were hard to climb, He knew how much Matthew could bear, so He gently closed his loving eyes and whispered, "Peace be thine." Matthew received his education within the Baltimore City School System. Upon completion of his education, he decided to join the United States Army where he served honorably for four years and thirteen years with the National Guard. He was employed as a driver for Up-To-Date Laundry until his illness. Matthew was blessed to have gentle spirit and disposition. He was a true friend and was willing to help others. Matthew loved God and acknowledged that he accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and personal Savior. He leaves to mourn: his fiancée, Sharon D. Polk, his father, Matthew Jones; one sister, Ester Mae Jones, three aunts, Correne, Hattie Mae, and Carrie; two uncles, James and Jesse; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I am sorry to learn of your recent loss. I send my sincere condolences to the family and friends. It may seem unfair that sickness, which can cause death, has the power to take away someone that we love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises at Revelation 21: 1-5 that Almighty God will wipe away sickness, death, pain, outcry, and sorrow. Yes these things will be of the past. He also promise to "resurrect" our dearly beloved ones into a beautiful "paradise".[Acts 24: 15, Luke 23: 43] Mr. Matthew J. Jones will not be forgotten.##imported-begin##Denise King##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." It is my hope that this scripture comforts you.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

(2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life.
