

Matthew Jones Sr.

September 9, 1947 - May 12, 2017

Matthew Jones Sr. was born to the late Robert Williams and the late Olivia Jones on September 9, 1947 in Tarboro, NC. He departed this life on May 12, 2017 in Baltimore, MD.

Matthew received some of his education in NC before migrating to MD. due to a terrible rain storm that flooded his hometown of Tarboro. Matthew traveled to Baltimore with his six siblings, five of which preceded him in death, Henry, Paul, Archie Lee, Leroy, and Susie. He continued his education in Baltimore City schools but early on chose to discontinue his education to take a job to help support his siblings. The drive and determination continued into his adulthood to take--care of his wife and kids.

One of his first jobs in Baltimore was an Arabber, which he was very good at and enjoyed. He met a lot of Baltimoreans through that job. He then found a new passion which was his love for Masonry, something he did for over 30 years for Banner Masonry Sorrenson, and Legon and Legon.

On July 3, 1966 Matthew and his loving wife Rosie became as one. From this union, Sheila, Olivia, Rosalind, Tracey, and their one and only son Matthew Jr., was born.

From his children he was blessed with several grandchildren, Stacey, Michael, Devon, Joshlyn, Robin, Lynnette, Kendra, Jamea, Marcus, Ahmad, Shaquana, Diamond, Courtney, Corey, Makaelah, Autumn, and Quantre. Then his great-grandchildren Sean, Ira, Jaziyah, Kiyah, Kamille, Phillip, Makenzie, Umar, and Zaleah who will all cherish his memory.

Matthew also leaves to cherish his memory: his twin sister, Mattie (Edward), and a host of other nieces, nephews and family members.
