

Matthews Graham II

March 12, 1944 - June 17, 2014

Family and Friends

If you are reading this note, I am not physically with you. God and I had a talk and agreed that seventy years was my limit. I moved to my new heavenly home on the morning of June 17, 2014. I expect that I will see Matthews, Sr. (father), Carrie Lee (mother), Mildred (sister), John (brother), Leon (son), my grandparents, and a host of other family members and friends, when I get there. I have left Baltimore behind. I spent many good years there, went to school there, worked there, played there and made good friends (and a few enemies) there. I've had a good life. I married my wife, Vera, in June 1975. I am going to miss our thirty- ninth wedding anniversary on June 22; but she's gotten used to that over the years. Our sons, DeSean and Darryl will help her to remember and celebrate good times. To my children: Debra, Valerie, Tony, Damon, Derrick, DeSean, Danielle and Darryl — I wish the best that life can bring. To my brother, Willie Joe; sisters, Linell, Sandra and Evelyn; grandchildren; nieces and nephews; friends; former co-workers and those who have rallied to support my family, I give my thanks and love. I am still with you, in spirit. Mack

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is the most difficult thing we deal with. I wanted to take this time to express my condolences to you for your loss. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's word the Bible. (Psalms 83:18) The Bible promises: "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." (John5:28,29) Jesus Christ promised that millions now dead will live again on this earth and have the prospect of remaining on it forever peaceful paradisaic conditions. The Binle also promises: "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing." (1Corinthians 15:26) Death will be removed from all the earth. Tears of sorrow will vanish. (Revelation 21:4) No one will die from natural causes or weep. These are promises that will soon be a reality. The Bible plainly states: "It is impossible for God to lie." (Hebrews 6:18) May you find comfort from these promises. And may Jehovah God of all comfort be with you. (2Corinthians 1:3,4)
