“ To the family of Mattie Alston: I just want to express my sympathy to the family. I also want to share some encouragement about your loved one. Death is a real enemy and it is very heartbreaking. But the Bible assures us at (1 Corinthians 15:26) that death is to be brought to nothing. That same chapter, verses 21 and 22 speaks of a resurrection, so there is hope of seeing your loved one again, and that will happen in God's New World. As you read your Bible, I hope it will bring some comfort to you. Sincerely yours Ruth Thomas###imported-begin##Ruth Thomas###imported-end##

“ It hurts whenever your mother goes on to Glory. If she was well it hurts;if she was sick for a long time, it still hurts. But I know from experience that trusting in the Lord Jesus Chirst makes the hurt bearable. I know you have this same belief; so lean on Him. He will wipe the tears from your eyes. God is truely our refuge and strength. Love, Your sister in Christ, Marion##imported-begin##Marion T. Carter##imported-end##
