

Mattie Dees

October 15, 1900 - December 5, 2001

Mrs. Mattie Mosley Dees, the youngest daughter of the late Rev. Green Mosley and Hattie Spivey Mosley, was born on October 15, 1900 in Blakely, Georgia. Mattie attended Sunday school at Prospect A.M.E. Church in Blakely, Georgia, the church that her father built on his plantation. Mattie began a long sojourn to win souls for Christ when she was converted to Christ at an early age. Mattie completed her education in 1922 as a graduate from the Payne College in Augusta, Georgia. Mattie, the independent woman we all knew, packed her bags and moved to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, where she joined the Emanuel A..M. E Church. She then met her beloved , the late James Dees in 1924. They were united in marriage in 1926, after which, they moved to Baltimore, Maryland. The couple decided on a church home of service to the Lord at the Waters A.M.E. Church in Baltimore, Maryland. Mattie was admired and loved by her late brothers and sisters, Mrs. Clyde “Clara” Hightower, Mrs. Valeria Crouch, Mr. Johnny Mosley and Rev. Tommy Mosley. They all shared the same affection for Mattie and stated that “Mattie was always a smart girl, obedient to her parents and strong belief in God.” Mattie leaves to mourn: three very special nieces, Mrs. Irene Nickles of Camden, NJ, Mrs. Ann Smith of Camden, NJ and Mrs. Emma Primm of Washington, D.C.; one very special nephew, Mr. Felton Mosley of Philadelphia, Pa.; and a host of other relatives and friends.
