

Mattie Elizabeth Ransom

October 28, 1918 - July 25, 2002

Mattie Elizabeth Ransom, daughter of the late Martha and Frank Tull, was born on October 28, 1918 in Wattsville, Virginia. On July 25, 2002, Mattie was given her wings to join our Heavenly Father. Mattie received her education in Wattsville, Virginia and Wilkes-Barre Pennsylvania. She retired from the Baltimore City Public School System in the early 1980's. Mattie along with her family, was a member of First Mt. Calvary Baptist church, where she also served as a Sunday school teacher. Mattie was married to the late Carroll Cleveland Ransom, Sr. and out of this union three children were born: Dorothy Suzanne, Carolyn Pamela, and the late Carroll Cleveland Ransom, Jr. Mattie enjoyed entertaining family and friends every Saturday in "Momma's" kitchen. She was an avid lover of music, clothes, watching wrestling and baseball on television, she was meticulously neat. Mattie was an active and devoted grandmother who thrived on providing love, joy and protection to her grandchildren. Mattie will always be known for her strong will, quick wit, feisty attitude and the dominant matriarch of her family. Mattie leaves to cherish her loving memories: daughters, Dorothy "Dottie" Rahman, Carolyn "Bubbles" Phillips; one sister, Geneva Williams of Wilkes-Barre, Pa; grandchildren, Tyrone Edmonds, Wendell Whitehead, Suzanne Smallwood-Massey and Teresa Ransom (two grandchildren preceded her in death, ShuRon Harden and Dwayne Ransom); three great grandchildren, Dennis Edmonds, Taylor Massey and Christian Powell; and a host of other relatives, family and friends.

“ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
