“ May you be comforted by the wonderful hope of the ressurection, because one day soon the dead ones will come to life once again. When Jesus was here on the earth he brought many people back to life; including his friend Lazarus and a little 12-year old girl. Mark 5:38-43 tells us that her parents were beside themselves with joy at seeing their little girl alive again. Imagine the joy we will have when we are reunited with our loved ones again. This is God's promise, a promise that we can put our faith and trust in, because he never fails to fullfill his word. Isaiah 55:11. May you find much comfort and joy in God's promises of a new world of peace and a ressurection of the dead. 2nd Peter 3:13, John 5:28,29. Take care.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Death is a cruel "enemy,"(1 Corinthians 15:26) that Almighty God will soon destroy. Until then, hold tight to your precious memories and be comforted by "the God of all comfort."(2 Corithians 1:3)##imported-begin##B. Curtis##imported-end##
