

Mattie P. Jackson

December 28, 1950 - January 11, 2009

Mattie Pearl Jackson, daughter of the late Semore and Henrietta Washington, was born December 28, 1950. On the late evening of Sunday January 11, 2009, GOD dispatched his Angels to receive her beloved soul. Mattie received her education through New Jersey public schools. She was affectionately known as a woman of many skills. As such her smile and presence that enlighten any and every room she entered; her dancing around especially when she was happy; her willingness to motivate others; her thrive to do better in life; and not to forget that she was mostly known for her kind, loving, caring, and giving heart. She was an excellent cook, mother, and grandmother to many, even those who weren't related to her. A friend to everyone, a shoulder to cry on and a comfort to those in need. Mattie leaves to cherish her precious memory one daughter Tammie Jackson and one son-in-law Victor Cooper; six grandchildren Shawn, Peanut, Naimah Jackson, Vanessa, Victor Jr., and Billy; one great-grandson Jytay; two great-granddaughters Aniah and Janay; five sisters Gert, Esta, Iren, Diane, and Annette, one brother Butch; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and close friends who loved her dearly. Mattie Pearl Jackson will be missed.

“ *Please accept my sincere condolences. May you find comfort from God's promise to restore life to our loved ones. "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." “ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Revelation 21:4,5 lovingly reveals that our enemies death and sickness will be destroyed. There is much hope for our loved ones who have died because Acts 24:15 declares "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
