

Mattie B. Price

July 9, 1928 - March 10, 2017

Mattie B. Price, a loving, humble, life-long caregiver, was born on July 9, 1928 to the late Irene Black and Doc Jordan in Winnsboro, South Carolina. She departed this life on March 10, 2017 after a lengthy illness.

She was educated in Winnsboro, South Carolina. Later, her parents moved to Baltimore, Maryland where she continued her education at Public School# 113.

Mattie loved working with people. During her lifetime, she held several positions caring for and working in several nursing homes in the Baltimore area.

Later, she met the love of her life, Author J. Price, whom she married in 1955. From this union, nine children were born. Three preceded her in death, Thomas, Patricia and Gloria.

After many years of attending and ministering to others at the Eastern Star Tabernacle, in 2002, she was licensed as a Minister.

Mattie was God's gift to her family. She always had an ear to listen and would pray for you through any situation. Her favorite saying was "a bushel and a peck, and hug around the neck".

One sister, the late Fannie Dobbin and one brother Andrew Black preceded her in death.

She leaves to carry on her legacy to: her children, Frances Jordan, Author, Virginia, Vanessa Lucas (Kenny), John and Laverne Price; one sister, Lucy Haire (Joseph); one brother, John Black; sixteen grandchildren, forty-three great-grandchildren; and a host of other loving family and friends.

We Miss You

We cried when you passed away, we still cry today

Although we loved you dearly, we couldn't make you stay.

Your golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest,

God broke my heart to prove to us, He only takes the best.
