

Maude D. Johnson

January 31, 1920 - March 24, 2012

Maude Johnson, daughter of Harry and Gertrude Carter, was raised in Rectortown, Virginia. She was unified in Holy Matrimony to Ulysees Grant. From this union one son, Ulysees Grant, Jr. was created. Grant Jr. preceded his mother in death.

Maude moved to Baltimore, Maryland where she was employed by Garrison Forest Girls School for many years. Maude was later blessed with a loving husband, Harvey Johnson, with whom she lived until his death.

Maude was a faithful member of New St. Mark Baptist Church. There she was honored with a certificate of appreciation as a BCCE Senior Diamond participant for sixty-five years of diligent service. She cared for and enjoyed serving the community.

Surviving Maude Johnson are: two grandsons, Kenneth Grant of New York and Khary Ward of Baltimore, Maryland; three sisters, Lula Mae Harris of Kansas City, Missouri, Irene Harris of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and Eva Walken of Ashland, Virginia; two brothers, Eugene Carter of Manassas, Virginia and Al Carter of Warrenton, Virginia; two nephews, Carroll and Chyrea Campbell; three nieces, Vera Owen, Beverly Campbell and Barbara Campbell all of Baltimore, Maryland; and a beloved great-niece, Chrystal Holmes of Baltimore, Maryland; and a host of nephews, nieces and other relatives and friends.

“ The neighborhood will never be the same without Miss Maude. She had such a spirit of love. Her pride, independence and spunk was truly inspirational. She was such a fine lady and commanded respect from all she encountered. Heaven is richer but those of us who knew and loved her are truly blessed. Farewell to our friend and neighbor and peace to her family. Floyd and Betty Williams and family

“ Please accept my condolences to the family. May you find comfort in the scriptures at Rev 21:3,4 where Almighty God promises to remove death. I hope this will encourage you during your time of bereavement.

Mrs. Howard - March 26, 2012 at 10:47 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
