“ To the family. I am so sorry for your loss. When we all could; Maude, Ruth and I spent a lot of time running from here to there. She was truly a lovely person, but age and illness hit both of us - and that slowed us down, including the death of our dear friend Ruth. I pray that you can find peace and solace as you know she is resting in the arms of the Lord. God bless you all. Bernita Paige

“ Mrs. Maude,

You were always such a nice person every time I saw you. I remember coming to your house with my grandmother all the time and you always had one of your delicious coconut cakes. You will be missed. My condolences to your family
