“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that " the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.

“ *To the family,
I am deeply sorry for the loss of your dear loved one. Death can be hard to cope with but fortunately we can draw comfort from the scriptures. One particular scripture is found at Isaiah 25:8 which says in part, "He (God) will swallow up death forever". One day soon, God will not only get rid of death, but He will also resurrect our dead loved ones. May this promise bring you comfort and peace during this time of need (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).*

“ My condolences to the family in the passing of your mother and grandmother. Understanding that your earthly loss is great, yet she has gained her reward in heaven. 2 Corinthians 5:8 "We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

“ My condolences go out to the family of Ms Maude Taylor. This must be a difficult time for you, understanding that someone that you loved passed away. God has provided us with a comforting promise and it involves us seeing our loved ones again. Revelation 21:4 says “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes. Isn’t that good news?”

“ I wish to extend my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection." The Bible gives a real hope of being reunited with your dead loved ones. May you receive much comfort and strength from the resurrection hope.

Sharon Hill - February 17, 2014 at 07:06 PM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
