

Maudeane Solomon

April 10, 2015 - October 28, 2015

Maudeane Marina Solomon, daughter of the late John and Lydia Andrews, was born on April the 10th, 1944, in Point Fortin, Trinidad and Tobago in the West Indies. She departed this life during the early hours of October the 28th, 2015.

She gave birth to two wonderful children, Ronald and Leticia Swanston. Maudeane was married to her husband Hollis Solomon for 35 happy years.

As a child, she received her education from Osmond high school, located in Port Of Spain, Trinidad and Tobago. After migrating to the United States, in the summer of 1968, she completed her education by attending and graduating from Catonsville technical college, majoring in early childhood education. Later, she pursued a successful career as a day care administrator, for the U.S. centers for Medicare & Medicaid services, for many, many for filling years. she eventually started her own home based day care business.

In her spare time she enjoyed long scenic walks, traveling, tending her garden, and a large variety of cinema. She considered teaching young children her calling.

She leaves to mourn: her husband Hollis Solomon, her son Ronald Stevenson Swanston, her daughter Leticia Marina Swanston, 2 grandchildren; Ronald Stevenson Swanston the III, and Jalen Isaiah Swanston, Her brother, Winston Devon Andrews, her sister Merle Jeanette Ward, and a large host of other loving family and friends.

“ Tish, I was deeply saddened to hear of your Mom's passing. My condolences, thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I know it is hard but she will watch over you and help you to get through this very difficult time. I'll never forget her best backyard parties. My prayers go out to all of you at this sorrowful time.
