“ I wanted to express my sorrow over the loss of your loved one. Losing a loved one is something we all wish we never had to go through. Thankfully, within his word the bible, God promises us that soon "death will be no more". He also gives us the hope of seeing our loved ones who have already fallen asleep in death (Revelation 21:3,4 John 5:28,29). Again my condolences.

“ May the peace of Jehovah's promise help ease your grief.(John 5:28,29; Psalms 34:18)

M. Johnson - January 18, 2012 at 11:02 AM

“ I would like to extend my condolences to the family on the loss of your loved one. In your grief, may these scriptures help to comfort you.(Psalms 34:18; John 5:28, 29 and 2 Cor. 1: 3, 4)

M. Johnson - January 18, 2012 at 11:00 AM

“ My deepest sympathy to the family on the loss of your loved one. In time, your heart will heal and you will be left with the memories and love you have known.(Isaiah 61:2)

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
