

Maurice A. Baker

June 30, 1957 - January 31, 2024

On January 31, 2024 Maurice was called to move to a better home where he could visit his family and friends. Maurice was born to the late Larry James and Goldie Baker. As a young boy Maurice gave his life to Christ and was baptized at St. Paul Baptist Church. There he sang on the choir which inspired him to become a professional singer. Maurice later graduated from Lake Clifton in 1974. After he graduated, he joined the Army National Guard in 1978. Shortly after he studied with an instructor at Peabody Institute with much practice he became a 1st and 2nd silver tenor. He started his first group with his best friend Ricky Macintosh, Harry Bird, and then Frankie came along. Shortly after he sang with just a few groups (True Artist, FM 109 and Styles). He sang at the Apollo and he was fortunate to have dinner with The Delfonics which he idolized and was inspired by the most. Maurice liked movie time and game time. He was quite the jokester. Maurice had many jobs carrier (mover), university and carpentry.

He leaves behind his children April Baker, Keia Baker, Virginia, Andre Maurice Baker and the late Maurice Andre Baker, Larry Tyrone Backer, Henry Lee Epss (Tuff), Sharon Wright (Janie), Shirley Ann Baker Fason. Maurice leaves cherishing memories to his siblings Terri Bailey, Carolyn Baker, Rhonda Baker Rolanda Baker, Cedric Haris, 9 grandchildren Twins Juan and Jon Williams, Jaionna and Cimone Owens, Dremari Baker (Virginia) and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts and cousins, friends and family. His loving memories are never forgotten.
