“ What a great guy, strong firefighter, family man. Mo came to Overlea Rec field for a kids game when I saw him one evening at the game. You had to like and respect Maurice Blow, a friend indeed.

“ It was my great privilege to work with Mo on B-Shift at 25 Engine, on McCulloh Street, back in the 1970s. He was a mentor, a friend, and a terrific firefighter.

Mo was one of the friendliest guys I ever met, and there wasn't anyone in our firehouse who didn't like and respect him. 25 Engine was an old-fashioned community firehouse back then; Mo knew everybody in the neighborhood, and they all knew and loved him as well.

Mo was a terrific firefighter...tough and brave and dedicated, the kind of man who sets an example for the younger guys he works with. He first served his country in the military, and then served the citizens of Baltimore his entire working life. May he rest in peace, and may his memory always be a blessing to his loved ones...
