

Maurice Elmer Carroll

October 6, 1952 - November 6, 2011

MAURICE ELMER CARROLL, was born on October 6, 1952. he was the second son of the late Doris Henson Kinchen and Elmer Carroll. He departed this life Sunday, November 6, 2011 after a lengthy illness. He fought a good fight and was determined not to give up, but God knew he was tired and called him home to rest.

Maurice received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He graduated from Paul Laurence Dunbar High School in June of 1971.

Maurice was employed by the Baltimore City Department Of Sanitation. He took an early disability retirement from this agency due to an "on the job" injury.

Mar, as he was affectionately called by family and friends, married his sweetheart, Odell Major in 1981. he was the father of four children. He loved his children, grandchildren and sisters as well as other family members. Mar missed his brother Ronald, who preceded him in death. He enjoyed his Monday morning breakfast outing. Maurice was a fun loving person and had many friends who will truly miss him. He loved to talk, draw and always write down things he felt important. He loved to dress up and wore a hat to match every outfit. He had a hat for everyday.

Maurice leaves with fond memories, his wife, Odell (Nee); two daughters, Shannon and Sherrah; two sons, Maurice and Shawn; fourteen grandchildren; his father and Stepmother, Elmer and Sally; five sisters, Robin, Terry, Delodie, Dawn and April; his mother-in law, Mary Jackson; one sister-in-law; nieces, nephews and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
