June 23, 1924 - September 4, 2007

Maurice D. Norwood, Sr., son of the late Reverend Sylvester Hill and Nan T. Norwood, was born on June 23, 1924 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on September 4, 2007. He received his education in Baltimore, Maryland. He served in the United States Army from August 1943 to April 1946. He was honorably discharged as a Tech 4 automotive mechanic. He was initially employed by the City of Baltimore at the Police Department's Motor Vehicle Maintenance Facility as a mechanic. He retired in April 1983, as a supervisor, from the Central Garage. During his retirement, he and Cora enjoyed going to various restaurants and visiting family members. He also enjoyed repairing cars, doing home repairs, listening to his records and reconditioning toys – which he often gave to local children and charities. Maurice, affectionately called “Donald” or “Pop”, leaves to cherish his memory: his wife of 64 years, Cora; son, Maurice D. Norwood, Jr.; grandchildren, Andrea Bradley, Marcia Robinson, Marc Norwood, Jarrett and Joseph Johnson. He also leaves great-grandchildren, Timothy, Gary and Aidan in addition to many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. His only daughter, Joni, predeceased him in July 2002.

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy in your hour of bereavement. Despite this difficult time, you can find comfort in the Christian hope of the resurrection. Jesus promises at John 5:28,29: "Do not marvel at this but the hour is coming in which all those in the Memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Yes the ransom sacrifice of Christ Jesus makes it possible that we can embrace our loved ones again.##imported-begin##A. Robinson##imported-end##
