

Maurice Edward Fox

November 15, 1943 - February 17, 2019

Legacy and Celebration of His Life

We thank God for sharing him with us. There is no descriptive epitaph to describe our love for him. We humbly submit him and our cares to God our Gracious Father whose “mercies endureth forever.” His legacy of unconditional love and self-sacrificing service to others will remain forever in our memories.

Maurice Edward Fox, 75, of Richmond, Virginia, departed this life Sunday, February 17, 2019. He was born in Brooklyn, New York in November 15, 1943 to the late Kate Lee Fox and Roland Serrano. He was preceded in death by his daughter, Tatia Fox-Goodman; great-granddaughter, Angelica Love Scott and sister Carolyn Fox.

He was affectionately called “Eddie” by his family that adored him. Maurice received his formal education at Aviation High School in Queens, New York and was self-educated through his love for books. On June 16, 1979 he married Chris Love, his best friend and soul-mate. From this union they were blessed with five children.

He was employed by Designatronics as a Supervisor of Machinist for 19 years. After he retired, he moved his family to Richmond, Virginia to be closer to his family and loved ones.

He had a wonderful sense of humor and would make you laugh. Maurice enjoyed reading, listening to music and watching movies. Maurice was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, uncle that loved his family.

He leaves to cherish his memory wife of forty years, Chris Love Fox; daughters, Roxanne Johnson (Ronald Perrie), Sharon Fox and La'Tosha Wilkerson (Kermit); son, Edward Scott (Elvia); 17 grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren, 4 god-children, a host of cousins, 2 nephews and many friends will miss him.
