

Maurice Lydell Gordon

January 8, 1975 - December 20, 2010

MAURICE LYDELL GORDON, was born on January 8, 1975 in the University of Maryland Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. He graduated from Carver Vocational Technical High School in 1993. He continued his education at Hartford Community College and got his apprenticeship as an electrician on June 1, 1998. He worked early on as an employee for BGE but spent most of his time as a tenured employee for Casper G. Sippel, Inc. He continued to work successfully in this field for many years.

Maurice stayed in his home town Baltimore. He loved music, the color blue, movies, playing video games and wolves. He was a proud father and husband and loved to spend time with his family.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Nicola Gordon; daughter, Justice Gordon; mother, Diane Spuirewell; father, Mario Spuirewell Sr.; three sisters, Dana Averette, Rhonda Jones and Spuirewell Jr. Maurice will also be missed by his aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and friends

“ hey dad, i know it's been awhile. i really miss you. i figured i should probably tell you about how i've these last 5 years. chop, aunt toya, and uncle melvin all passed away but i'm slowly coming to peace with it all. also i graduated, i thought of you the whole time, ik you would be so proud of me. i didn't go to college (i wonder if you would've been okay with) and honestly i still don't if i am but i did start doing photography and i honestly think you would love it. i have i boyfriend now too, i showed him i pictures of you and he actually got really excited and said we don't look alike but we look alike. i agree though, i don't think i look like you or mom but ik i act like you guys. his name is danny btw, i think you guys would actually get along great. and if i'm being completely honest i think i might marry him, he treats me like a princess and he always so supportive and sweet. i'm on my way to a new job too, nothing exciting but hopefully it'll last. there's way more stuff that happened but i'll save that for next time. I Love You so much and i wish you were still here but ik. ❤️
