

Maurice E. Jones

September 28, 1936 - November 24, 2012

MAURICE E. JONES, son of the late William and Clara Jones, was born on September 28, 1936 in Baltimore, Maryland. He peacefully fell asleep, taking his final rest in Christ on November 24, 2012.

He was baptized at an early age when Berea Temple was known as the third Seventh-Day Adventist Church located on Harlem Avenue and Dolphin Street, where he faithfully began his service for the Lord.

Maurice received his formal education at Baltimore Academy located at Harlem Avenue and Dolphin Street. Due to his health, he continued his education at home by being home schooled by his grandmother, Hattie Parran, who taught him well. Maurice was gifted in math by being able to calculate “faster” than a calculator. Maurice studied his Bible daily along with his Sabbath School lesson.

Maurice visited the sick and shut-in regularly, carrying bags of vegetable, canned goods and potatoes on public transportation. He knew every bus number and route throughout the city and county.

Every Thursday evening he had a list of church members, who he faithfully called to tell them the sun set at a certain time. Maurice showed his love in the church through his kindness and good deeds.

We look forward to that great reunion when the Lord comes to take His children home. He will be missed, but we sorrow not as those without hope, for we know that death is a sleep, that will be broken soon, when Jesus appears.

Maurice leaves to cherish his memory: three aunts, Violet Stoakley, Shirley Parson and Mary Parran; nieces, nephews, cousins, including a faithful friend, Elder Howard Wilson.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the lost of your dear loved one. When speaking of his recently deceased friend Lazarus, Jesus compared death to sleep. (John 11:11-13). The fact that Jesus resurrected Lazarus shows that the dead can live again. Indeed, by this miracle Jesus showed on a small scale what will take place on earth under the rule of God's Kingdom. (Acts 24:15) What a comfort that is for those who lose their loved ones in death during this turbulent time!
