

Maurice E. Stevenson Sr.

June 9, 1935 - July 21, 2019

Maurice Edward Stevenson, Sr., son of the late Clarence and Irene (Walker) Stevenson, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on June 9, 1935. He fell asleep in death on July 21, 2019, after a lengthy battle with cancer.

Maurice received his education in Baltimore City Public Schools and served in the United States Air Force from January 7, 1954 to November 20, 1957. He was employed at the Mass Transit Administration (MTA), from which he retired after 33 years. In 2002 Maurice earned his certification as an electrician from WSSC.

Maurice was a quiet yet comical man. He well known to be a very generous and unselfish man, as well as a hard-working family man who dearly loved his wife, children and grandchildren. Maurice loved fishing, reading and working with his hands on various projects. He was also a bit of a historian. His family could count on him because he was very reliable as well as resourceful. He was the jack of all trades and the master of most. Maurice left a lasting impression on everyone who came in contact with him.

Maurice was preceded in death by his beloved wife of 46 years, Phyllis; three daughters, Robin, Linda (Linky) and Monique (Monie); two brothers, Clarence and Henry; and one sister, Nadeen.

Maurice leaves to cherish and celebrate his legacy his children: Norrice (Cuda) [Earl Herndon], Deborah (Debbie), Tracy [Rodney Byrd], Maurice (Snapper) Jr. [Mitzie]; two sisters: Deanna Travers and Robin [William] Robinson; a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-great-grandchildren; as well as a host of nieces and nephews and other family members and friends.
