

Maurice Williams

September 23, 1965 - September 22, 2001

Maurice Williams was born on September 23, 1965, in Cleveland, Ohio. He departed from life on Saturday, September 22, 2001. Maurice lived in Cleveland for the first 18 years of his life. He attended Cleveland Public Schools. Upon his arrival in Maryland he worked various jobs. His last place of employment was with Hillis-Carnes, a job that was a challenge as well as a joy. Maurice was lovingly known as Reese. He loved his family; traveling, fast cars, music and he loved to have a good time. He also could hold a conversation on any and everything. Maurice was also a "Mr. Handyman. If it could be taken apart he did it and put it back together. Maurice enjoyed helping others any way he could. He was "The Big Brother" in every sense of the word. The brightest light of his life is his daughter Sareece Arashae Williams and his loving companion Sonja Hope Reed. We will all miss the physical presents of Maurice, but he will live on in the hearts of those who love him. Maurice leaves to celebrate his life, his parents; Theodore "Ted" and Nancy Williams, his maternal grandmother; Bernice Williams, his daughter; Sareece Arashae Williams, sister; Sherie R. Williams, brothers; Teddy, Duane D. and James B. Williams. His companion of many years Sonja Hope Reed. Neal and Barbara Pearson, two nieces; Megan K. Christian and Akira M. Williams, nephew; Colonel S. Cummins and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and many friends.

“ God has chosen to take you into his kingdom. It is not for us to question. I know you are chillin' with our grandfathers and grandmother and together you all are watching over us. You're my big brother then, now and forever. There are so many things we've done together so many things we still have yet to experience together. You are always in my thoughts, heart, and soul. Don't worry, we will be alright. We have you protecting us from most high as you did when you were here with us. I love you always big brother. Your sis, BRAT.##imported-begin##BRAT##imported-end##
