

Maurine Claudette White

September 13, 1942 - September 20, 2013

Maurine Claudette Carey - White was a daughter of the late James A. Carey, Sr and the late Sarah L. Carey Ridgely and devoted stepfather the late Raymond Ridgely. Maurine was born on September 13, 1942 in Baltimore, Maryland he closed her eyes in peace on September 20, 2013

Maurine was raised as a child to believe in our Lord. She was a former member of new Psalmist for many years. She still attended church until she was not able to. Her smile was as bright as the sun. Maurine loved her family and gatherings, where we laughed and enjoyed taking family photos.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. Maurine worked for many years as a domestic worker until she was unable to continue.

She later met and married the late Marion White. One son was born, James T. White.

Everywhere Maurine went she made a friend easily. She will be truly missed by family and friends.

Maurine will forever be remembered in our hearts as she leaves to cherish her memory: her loving son, James; grandson , James Jr.; two sisters, Annette L. Carey-Holmes, Paulette Y. Johnston and sister, Lela Ross (who preceded her in death); two brothers (who preceded her in death) James A. Carey, Jr and Llewellyn Carey. Also preceding her in death are four grandparents , eleven aunts and seven uncles; one aunt, Lisa Myers, now 97; two brothers-in-law, Charles A. Holmes and Thomas White; brother-in-law (brother-in-law) Dan White; three sisters-in-law, Gladys, Ann and Marie; several nieces (two preceded her in death) Froncena and Nita; several nephews (one preceded her in death) Theron "Percy". She also leaves many great-nieces and nephews, a host of cousins and friends. Maurine always considered Evelyn Keene as family, (like a sister).

“ Maurine Claudette White

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ My condolences go out to the family of Ms Maurine c White-. This must be a difficult time for you, understanding that someone that you loved passed away. God has provided us with a comforting promise and it involves us seeing our loved ones again. Revelation 21:4 says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

“ I am very sorry to hear of your loss, please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort in family and friends at this difficult and trying time. The Bible also offers words of comfort and speaks of a time when death, pain and suffering will be no more at Revelation 21:4. Again, I pray this message brings you much comfort.

“ I'm sorry for your lost, I could only imagine the hurt your family is currently going through. I'm sure with Ms. White's 71 years of life copious fond memories are readily available to help alleviate some of the pain. I just wanted to share a small scripture that holds keen significance at a moment like this and that has help millions to find comfort at devastating times as these. It's John 5:28, 29 from the Bible. It states, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." So there is a hope that she will live again. THIS IS NOT THE END!
