

Mavis C. Smart

August 6, 1918 - July 6, 2018

Mavis C. Smart, daughter of the late Florence Corrothers-Grant and the late Sylvester Wilson, was born in St. Mary, Jamaica on August 12, 1918 where she lived in Jamaica all of her life before moving to the US with her daughter Rosalee 4 years ago.

There she peacefully transitioned into glory.

Mavis received her education in St. Mary, Jamaica. Mavis was seamstress by profession and a homemaker. Mavis gave her life to Christ when she was young and attended Bethel Gospel Hall. In her later years she and her husband had a devoted ministry and a Sunday School where they lived, in Keystone. Mavis was known for making sure no child was left out during Christmas, she provided all with toys and gifts. She also facilitated a prayer group once a week in her home. Mavis was an excellent cook and loving and a devoted wife to all of her children and grandchildren. With her neighbors and friends, Mavis was always a giver.

Mavis was married to Egbert Nelson Smart on August 17, 1940 and remained married for 53 yrs. when he transitioned. Through their union, eleven children were born. She leaves to cherish her memory two sons Delroy and Junior Christopher, who preceded her in death; nine daughters, Paulette, Yvonne, Donnet, Annette, Vinnet, Twins Camille and Rosalee, Janet, Andrea; two stepdaughters, Olive who preceded her in death and Joan; thirty one grandchildren, several great grands. Preceded in death were two sisters, Evith and Thelma. Mavis had a host of nieces and nephews, family and friends.

Mavis' final words were "to be he kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another even as Christ have forgiven you. A family divided cannot stand.
