“ To the family and friends, I offer my sincere sympathy. The loss of one we love causes much sorrow and grief. However, there is a remedy to this condition of death. It is the resurrection promised by "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who will comfort us in all our tribulation" 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. Job 14:15,15 lets us know that God has a "yearning" an earnest longing and desire to resurrect the dead. May you find comfort from these promises in God's word the Bible as we await the fulfillment of this wonderful provision. Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful hope in detail.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy to you and your family, for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. There's a scriptural thought found in God's word the Bible that I am sure will bring you as much comfort as it has me. At John chapter 5 verses 28,29 Jesus himself said that all those in the memorial tombs would, "hear his voice and come out." Yes the Christ promises us that we can see our dead loved ones again by means of the resurrection. I believe him, and I am sure that you do too! Fell free to contact me at the above address, and again, please accept my deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry to learn of the death of Maxine. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I'm forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrew 9:27 says...It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##
